Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Shirley Raue has dedicated her life to the care and needs of children at Raue Daycare in Pierre, South Dakota. She has been a daycare provider for the past 50 years and has made this community a much better place in which to live, work, play, and enjoy; and,

Whereas, Shirley has been a devoted child care provider and educator who demonstrated tireless dedication, tremendous commitment, unending creativity, and exceptional compassion in caring for children, and she deserve respect for her invaluable work; and,

Whereas, Shirley has cared for numerous children, including three generations of families in Pierre and is always giving of herself and to those in need; and,

Whereas, It is appropriate for the Governor of the state of South Dakota to make special note of this fellow South Dakotan for her 50 years of dedicated service:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 30, 2012, as in South Dakota, and I join her family and many friends in recognizing her 50 years of faithful service she has given to this community.

SHIRLEY RAUE DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-seventh Day of November in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twelve.

Dennis Daugaard

Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Jason Gant

Jason M. Gant, Secretary of State